Opening Prayer

As we gather this morning, we ask the Lord to be with us as we begin a new week.

We pray that all nations work together as one so that they may see each other as one family and the earth as one home.

May we all live together, responsibly and in perfect harmony.

Amen.

This week's theme is One world, one family united as one.

This week's theme one world, one family united as one means that we have a duty to look after one another and all of the people on this earth.

- In the Laudato Si document Pope Francis said “human life is grounded in three fundamental and closely intertwined relationships; with God, with our neighbour and with the earth itself.”

Pope Francis is telling us that we should develop our relationship with God.

Look after our neighbour (other people in the world)

Look after the earth.

This week we will look at scripture that reminds us that although we live in a world that is spread out, we are ultimately part of one big family that is the family of God.

Reading: A reading from Matthew 25: 31-46
Glory to you O Lord

When the Son of Man comes in his glory with all the angels, he will sit on the throne of glory. All the nations will be brought before him, and as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, so will he divide them, placing the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

The King will say to those on his right; "Come, blessed of my Father! Take possession of the kingdom prepared for you from the beginning of the world. For I was hungry and you fed me, I was thirsty and you have me to drink. I was a stranger and you welcome me into your house. I was naked and you clothed me. I was sick and you visited me. I was in prison and you came to see me."

The Word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

Reflection. This piece of scripture makes a distinction not only between those who have compassion and those who do not, but between those who are in a position to help, and those who are in need.

The 'least' (those who do not have much) live at the mercy of others, they can be pressured into particular behaviours due to their own circumstances. Their choices are severely limited ...

Opening Prayer

As we gather this morning, we ask the Lord to be with us as we begin a new day.

Hail Mary, full of grace, The Lord is with thee; Blessed art thou amongst women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb Jesus.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, Pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death.

Amen

Reading: A reading from Ephesians 4:32
Glory to you O Lord

Be kind to one another, understanding, forgiving one another as God forgave you in Christ.

Thanks be to God

Reflection:

This scripture verse challenges us to be kind and forgive others regardless of how they treat you. You can't change how someone treats you, but you can choose to respond to them with kindness. The end of this verse tells us that we can do this because God in Christ forgave us.

This week we have thought about what it means to love one another. We can show this to each other by simply being tolerant, trustworthy and patient. It is not difficult. Let us think about this as we join together in prayer.

Let us pray for the poor and marginalized. We pray that doors of opportunity that provide them with skills and resources, and lead them to sustainable livelihoods are opened to them.

Lord hear us

Lord Graciously Hear Us

Let us pray for those who are suffering as a result of natural disasters. We remember those who have lost their lives and we hold in our hearts the families forever changed by grief and loss.

Lord hear us

Lord Graciously Hear Us

We pray for those who live in oppressed war torn lands. We plead for your divine intervention, protection and provision for these innocent souls. We pray that your healing grace will help to mend shattered lives and restore hope.
